Regulations Governing Scholarship for Outstanding Students

Approved at the 2nd meeting of the Student Affairs Meeting in the Academic Year 2004 on Mar. 15th, 2005

Amended and approved at the 1st meeting of the Student Affairs Meeting in the Academic Year 2005 on Dec. 27th, 2005

Amended and approved at the 2nd meeting of the Student Affairs Meeting in the Academic Year 2006 on May. 29th, 2007

Amended and approved at the 1st meeting of the Student Affairs Meeting in the Academic Year 2007 on Dec. 4th, 2007

Amended and approved at the 1st meeting of the Student Affairs Meeting in the Academic Year 2010 on Dec. 29th, 2010

Article 1 National Central University (hereafter referred to as the University) has established the Regulations Governing Scholarship for Outstanding Students (hereafter referred to as the Regulations) to encourage students with outstanding and extraordinary achievements or with enthusiasm in public services and affairs.

Article 2 Each recipient will be awarded NT$ 20,000 and a certificate of merit.

Article 3 Number of recipients: the University will award sixty recipients each semester. Each department (and institute) shall have a maximum of two recipients. (The number of recipients for the merged department and institute will be calculated separately.) The number of recipients is subject to the availability of funds.

Article 4 Eligibility: students who have official enrollment status at the University and meet one of the following qualifications are eligible to apply. (Delayed graduated students and executive program students are excluded; overseas students shall submit their applications to the Office of International Affairs.)

4.1 Students have participated and received awards in university-level, national, or international contests during schooling at the University.

4.2 Students have won awards or made great contributions to the society with their creations, innovations, design patent, or research findings or results.

4.3 Students have participated in, made devotion to, and had great performances in the public affairs of the University; or students have joined public affairs in society and had outstanding achievements.

4.4 Students have excellent academic performance and high virtue and have outstanding achievements in public services.

4.5 Students have distinguished achievements in other fields.

Article 5 Application period: Student Services and Dormitory Division at the Office of Student Affairs make an announcement at the beginning of every semester. Students shall apply within the period.

Article 6 Applicants should submit the following documents:

6.1 Application form

6.2 Transcript for all semesters

6.3 Autobiography

6.4 Letters of recommendation

6.5 Supplementary documents or certificates within three years in students' schooling at the University. Students who have received the scholarship shall only apply with their new achievements.

Article 7 Review Process: each department (and institute) shall submit the list of nominees (and notify the nominated order). The University Scholarship Executive Committee will review the applicants' materials and announce the approved list of the scholarship recipients.

Article 8 The Regulations are implemented upon approval of the Student Affairs Meeting. All amendments are made following this same procedure.

PS. Applicants shall follow the schedule announced by their department offices. Applicants shall apply online in the Scholarships, Assistantships, and On-campus Part-time Jobs Management System, print out the application form via the system, and submit the application form with required documents to your department offices.
